

(livres 'English conversations': pillez-les, pour vous en servir dans le cadre de vos cours)
exemple :

Difficult situations

1. You have booked a holiday on a remote, exotic island. Just before you're about to leave, you see on the TV some news about outbreaks of violence between rival political factions on the island. Do you still go on holiday ?

3. You're on a street. You see a mother beating her 4-year-old child. Would you say or do something ?

7. You're offered a prestigious new job with an excellent salary. However it involves spending six months a year away in a far off country. Would you take it ?

8. You get on a train, anxious to find a seat because you are very tired. There is only one seat free, next to a drunk who is singing and yelling abuse at the other passengers. Do you take the seat ?

10. You are sitting next to someone in the train who is talking to friend on their mobile. They start saying all sorts of uncomplimentary things about you. What would you do ?

(à transposer en français)